

Some Interesting Situations

1. At a first round state match the players line up for introductions. You notice that all the players are in uniform but one player is wearing flip-flops on her feet. You instruct the girl to go put on her sneakers before the introductions. She informs you that she forgot her sneakers at school and would play in her flip-flops. What do you do?
2. At a county tournament two singles players are playing a defense only game. Points are taking forever! You hear one spectator say that the ball had traveled over the net 78 times for one point. After 45 minutes the score is 3-2 in the first set. What do you do?
3. At a county tournament a player, on a change over, is talking to one of his teammates at the fence and is receiving coaching. What do you do?
4. A team arrives 1 hour and 45 minutes late for a first round state tournament match. What do you do?
5. During a match two brothers are playing first and second singles for their team. During a changeover they are speaking to one another in a foreign language. What do you do?
6. At a county tournament an adult comes to you and says that a player on court 5 is making bad line calls. What do you do?

15

7. You notice two players have stopped play on a far court. You go to the court and ask what is going on? One player immediately says that his opponent is cheating. What do you do?